DETAILED ITINERARY

Departures are possible at 8:00 AM or 2:00 PM.

8:00 | 14:00 | Departing from Can Tho

The vehicle and tour guide will pick up guests at the hotel in Can Tho City Center and depart for Nga Bay.

Visit the market local in Ngã Bẫy

This peaceful region is known as the “Seven Water Ways”, where seven canals intersect to create the distinctive waterway network of the Mekong Delta. Visitors will have the opportunity to stroll through the vibrant local market, where a wide variety of fresh produce, tropical fruits, and traditional handicrafts are sold. This is also a chance to experience the everyday life of the countryside, from fishermen returning from the docks with their fresh catch to farmers busily tending to their harvested produce.

9:00 – 10:00 | 15:00 – 16:00 | Visit the Nga Bay Village making Fruit basket from bamboo by weaving.

This is a famous traditional craft village in the Mekong Delta region, specializing in producing woven products from bamboo and rattan for daily life and transporting agricultural products.

Experiential activities:

❖ Learn about the history of traditional bamboo handicraft village

Visitors will be introduced to the formation and development of the basket from bamboo by weaving, and learn about the role of baskets in the daily life and agricultural trade of people in the Mekong Delta from the past to the present.

❖ Observe the hand-knitting process

Visitors directly observe the stages of making a bamboo pole such as: splitting bamboo, sharpening the spokes, weaving the frame and finishing the product. Local artisans will demonstrate traditional weaving techniques with craftsmanship and experience accumulated over many generations.

❖ Experience knitting with artisans

Under the guidance of local people, visitors can try some simple weaving steps such as weaving spokes or shaping small products from bamboo. This is an interesting activity that helps visitors better understand the meticulousness and effort of traditional crafts.

❖ Exchange and take photos in craft villages

Visitors have time to interact with local people, learn more about the daily life of the craft village community, and take souvenir photos with unique handicraft products.
